

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, during the summer and fall of 1889, six South Dakota cities conducted an intensive fight to be the one chosen for the location of the Capital of South Dakota; and on October 1, 1889, Pierre was the victor;

AND WHEREAS, the state government is going on, and it is deemed expedient to provide for the location of the state government in Pierre and the surrounding area;

AND WHEREAS, this new program is called "Capital for a Day";

AND WHEREAS, "Capital for a Day" is designed to provide a place where an exchange of ideas, information and experience among the governor, cabinet, officials, representatives for the various business sectors, local political officials, special interest groups and the general public can occur; and

AND WHEREAS, it is hoped that Capital for a Day will result in a better relationship between state government and the citizens of South Dakota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. NICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 12, 1967, as "Capital for a Day".

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, this fourteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven.

GEORGE S. NICKELSON, GOVERNOR

in South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, this fourteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven.

GEORGE S. NICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOHN HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE